Dear Members –

At this time of year, we look to the AGM, welcoming new committee members and starting another great year at the Shed. Thank you to my executive and Committee for their assistance and guidance in the past 12 months. We have gained many new talented members and added to our wonderful and many new machines and assets. Our financial situation is sound and many thanks to Ian Weier for his constant effort to keep the records in great order; we hope the new soft ware will assist in this regard. Bob Lewitz has added many dollars through the Bunning’s BBQ’s and I thank all who have helped him do that. Laurie has been my backup and always there to support and take on any role asked of him.

We have gained a great presence throughout the Community with Dave and Jim working for the Apprentices with training has been wonderful. Brian has again shown he can make anything and adds much needed funds to our coffers. We are saddened to hear of our supporter Paul in so much trouble and we wish him well.

My thanks to all our sponsors and businesses who have assisted us in 2016-17 and especially the Salvation Army Bundamba for their support. Also our Auditor Gavin Tupper again for his auditing of the books.

Let us look to the next year with renewed vigor and excitement and again be “Shoulder to Shoulder” as leaders in our Community.

Terry

Golden Old Age

“How do I know that my youth’s all spent?
Well, my get up and go has got up and went.
But in spite of it all, I’m able to grin
When I recall where my get up has been.
Old age is golden, so I’ve heard it said,
But sometimes I wonder, when I get into bed.
My years in a drawer and tea in a cup,
My eyes on the table until I wake up.
The sleep dims my eyes, I say to myself —
‘Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?’
And I am happy to say as I close my door,
My friends are the same, perhaps even more.
When I was young, my slippers were red,
I could kick of my heels right over my head,
When I grew older my slippers were blue,
But still I could dance the whole night through.
Now I am old, my slippers are black.
I walked to the store and puff my way back;
The reason I know my youth is all spent,
My get up and go has got up and went.
But I really don’t mind, when I think with a grin
Of all the grand places my get up has been.
Since I have retired from life’s competition,
I busy myself with complete repetition.
I get up each morning, dust off my wits,
Pick up my paper, and read the “Obits,”
If my name is missing, I know I’m not dead.
So I eat a good breakfast, and go back to bed.”
