Dear Members

Happy Easter to all Members and their Families. We resume on Tuesday after Easter to start our much needed work for the Ipswich Community and ourselves.

On Friday 20th April, we are required to attend the SWICHON Golf Day at Ipswich Golf Club 11.30am to assist where necessary as we are the recipients of the day's fund raising. (see Rob Burt)

The exercise program is going well - thanks to Darryl and Steve.

My thanks go to all members who contribute to the smooth running of the Shed. In my absence, I trust that you will give Laurie the same support.

Thanks to Dave and Apprenticeships QLD we will receive approx 200 storage boxes which will be used for tidy storage of castors etc.

Remember, if you are unsure of a machine's safe use, get a trainer to show you how!

We wish Ian and Cheryl Ross a wonderful holiday as they head to Sarina - their first stop on their 12 month trip (depending on the money lol). Ian will be sponsored by the Shed as he visits sheds all over Australia. (Sure! says Treasurer Ian)

The Anzac Committee welcomes Shed members to attend the March and Service on Anzac Day.

Ipswich Festival Street Parade is on Saturday, April 14th and please support Andrew Orr on a newly painted trailer (thanks to Rob Burt).

I look forward to my return asap to a wonderful Shed and Friends.

Terry

I'm on a Committee Poem

Oh, have some pity, I'm on a committee
Which means that from morning till night,
We attend and amend and contend and defend
Without a conclusion in sight.

We confer and concur, we defer and demur,
And re-iterate all of our thoughts,
We revise the agenda with frequent addenda,
And consider a load of reports.

We compose and propose, we suppose and oppose,
And the points of procedure are fun,
But though various notions are brought up as motions,
There's terribly little gets done.

We resolve and absolve, but we never dissolve,
Since it's out of the question for us.
What a shattering pity to end our committee
Where else could we make such a fuss!

(saved my Rob Crepin's Mum)

REMEMBER

I remember the cheese of my childhood,
and the bread that we cut with a knife,
When the children helped with the housework,
and the men went to work, not the wife.
The cheese never needed an ice chest,
and the bread was so crusty and hot,
The children were silent, the wife was content with her lot.
I remember the milk from the billy,
with the yummy cream on the top,
Our dinner came hot from the oven,
and not from the fridge in the shop.

The kids were a lot more contented,
they didn't need money for kicks,
Just a game with our mates in the paddock,
and sometimes the Saturday flicks.

I remember the shop on the corner,
where a pen'orth of lollies was sold
Do you think I'm a bit too nostalgic, or is it... I'm just getting old?

I remember when the loo was the dunny,
and the dunny-man came in the night,
It wasn't the least bit funny
going out the back with no light.

The interesting items we perused,
from the newspapers cut into squares,
And hung on a peg in the outhouse,
it took little to keep us amused.

The clothes were boiled in the copper,
with plenty of rich foamy suds
But the ironing seemed never ending
as Mum pressed everyone's duds

I remember the slap on my backside, and the taste of soap if I swore Anorexia and diets weren't heard of
and we hadn't much choice what we wore.

Do you think that bruised our ego?
or our initiative was destroyed
We ate what was put on the table and I think life was better enjoyed.
